ATLAS expands crane fleet at Bauma 2022

- ATLAS Crane Service purchased multiple mobile and crawler cranes at Bauma, the world's largest construction tradeshow
- Cranes include mix of LR crawler cranes, LRT rough terrain mobile cranes, and LTR telescopic crawler cranes
- ATLAS order total stands at over $60 million to be delivered in the next 12 months.

ATLAS Crane Service purchased new mobile and crawler cranes to further expand the company's substantial North American fleet.

Newport News, VA (USA), Liebherr USA, Co., November 10, 2022 – Illinois based, ATLAS Crane Service, LLC (Atlas) purchased multiple cranes at Bauma 2022 in Munich, Germany. This order included LR 1500 and LR 1700-1.0 crawler cranes, LRT 1090-2.1 and LRT 1100-2.1 rough terrain cranes, and LTR 1220 telescopic crawler cranes.

With this purchase, Atlas Crane Service will have over 50 Liebherr cranes including all terrain cranes, rough terrain cranes, telescopic crawler cranes, and lattice boom crawler cranes to support projects in the fields of engineering and commercial construction.

Liebherr mobile and crawler cranes offer the latest technology and optimal safety features suitable for each crane size, as well as the applications required by jobsites. These cranes also offer Atlas easy transport, durability in rugged conditions, and a wide range of capacities. Liebherr cranes will aid Atlas in supplying jobsites of varying sizes and requirements with a wider range of cranes.

"I'm excited to place this order with Liebherr," says Zach Prentis – CEO of Atlas Crane Service. "Being partnered with an industry leader like Liebherr is important to Atlas Crane's continued success, and this order will help achieve Atlas Crane's vision for geographic expansion throughout North America. This order also further demonstrates Atlas Crane's continued investment into the renewable energy infrastructure."
